Alex Cole, RN

Alex is a superb nurse. She manages a calm and composed demeanor, despite what is happening to her and around her. When Alex is in charge, she maintains order by making sure everyone has the help they need in order to succeed. Alex's cautious, tranquil personality is not only good for coworkers, but it also encourages patients to collaborate with the team for favorable outcomes. Alex has done an excellent job as representative for the restraint committee and for the CLABSI spread of innovation project. She also looks forward to serving in the roles of Magnet champion and VAD Resource Nurse. Thank you to Alex for all you do!
