Dear Tasha Rose,

Thank you so much for participating in the Mock Interviews at our School of Nursing's Career Workshop this past Saturday! We know that you have a very busy schedule, and we truly appreciate that you agreed to help us with this important event. The response and feedback has been incredible and everyone is thrilled to have learned so much. We all feel more informed about the application process and more confident about how to present our best selves in an interview. Because of your help, we are excited and energized about the next steps in pursuing our careers and goals. You have given us some great tools to succeed and we are deeply grateful.

On behalf of the UNC School of Nursing, we thank you again for being so generous with your time.

Sincerely,

Clayton Freeman, Chair, Student Governance Council

Hello Ms. Hargreaves,

My name is Tasha Rose and I am a Clinical Nurse IV on the Cardiothoracic Step-down Unit at UNC Medical Center in Chapel Hill, NC. I am a recipient of the Center for Heart and Vascular Services Nurse of the Year Award for UNC Hospitals and would like to volunteer to be a reviewer for the Delaware Organization of Nurse Leaders 2015 Nurse Excellence Awards.

In full disclosure, I am a graduate of the University of Delaware and I have worked as a full time RN at one Delaware hospital and as a RN traveler at three of the other Delaware hospitals. I am thrilled about University of Delaware's recent designation as the #2 college in the nation to study health professions and I would love an opportunity to witness the excellence that is being demonstrated in my home state of Delaware.
